I first met Ken Wallace at the Sid Rumpo rehearsals in late 1971. I stayed with the band until August 1973. After not being in regular contact for almost 40 years, we started playing together again as a duo in 2011. This album, which consists of jazz and blues tinged original instrumentals, is the result of our efforts. 'Sailing' was a Sid Rumpo tune - JH.

Recorded by Pete Grandison at Shanghai Twang Studios.

Mixed and mastered by Maestro Murray Campbell.
